

Night Blaze Levels Duda's Packinghouse

A four-alarm fire at around 12:30 Wednesday morning, destroyed almost completely a packinghouse loading platform and peeling plant used by A. Duda & Sons at the Belle Glade Terminals.

A person identified as a white male whose first name is Don, old phoned the Sheriff's office at 12:32 that the Duda packinghouse was afire. The sheriff's office phoned the Belle Glade City Police, and they in turn notified the fire department at 12:35, according to the log of the two departments.

Glades Boy Scouts To Hold Camporee

All Boy Scout and Explorer units in the Glades District of the Gulfstream Council, B. S. A., are expected to take part in a Camporee this coming weekend. Units comprising this District are from Clewiston, Belle Glade, Pahokee, Okeechobee and Indianland. Other communities in the area have had participating units in the past.

The theme for this Camporee on December 13-15, 1963, near Port Mayaca will be "Know-How... Show-How" in which various instructors demonstrate skills in rope making, rope whipping, knot tying, lashing, personal first aid and realistic first aid. Patrol leaders will then instruct the boys in their patrol in the same skills. Good camping practices will also be taught.

The Order of the Arrow will be on hand to help with camp activities and will hold a tapout for new members at the campfire Saturday night, of which they will be in charge.

Legislative Group Gives Rep. Roberts Ed Com. Assignment

Representative Emmett Roberts has been advised of his appointment to membership on the Committee on Education—Higher Learning—by Senator Chairman of the Legislative Council.

Senator Ralph Blank receives an appointment as associate member of the Committee, Palm Beach County's Boca University and the proposed center of Higher Learning for the electronics industry, as well as other advanced schools of the State will have their attention.

Eight members of the Senate and an equal number from the House compose this research and study group of Florida's lawmakers, which has no supervisor or boss other than the House and Senate themselves.

The Reference Bureau of the Council through its staff is busy with research and preparation of bills to be introduced and subjects under consideration.

Among the work of the Council is the reorganization of the State Department of Agriculture, highway safety and mental health laws school and higher education, roads and highways, and penal institutions.

Mr. Roberts has been a member of the Council since 1954, and is Chairman of the Committee on Personnel and Retirement, and member of the Council's Management Committee.

Postoffice Open Til 5 Saturdays; Later On Weekdays

"We will keep the service by open until 5 p. m. on Saturdays, December 14 and 21."

Mrs. Rosa Nash, local postmaster said today as she outlined extra services incident to the anticipated heavy Christmas mailings.

"Although we will not be open on Sundays, we will honor any reasonable request, if you will just contact us at the office," said Mrs. Nash. "And, she further added, "we will remain open later than 5 p. m. on weekdays and until Christmas Eve, upon demand from the public. So long as patrons pour into our lobby we will remain open to serve them. When the mail comes to come, we will close our doors."

Mrs. Nash requested that Christmas cards be bundled for "in-town" and "out-of-town" and handed to a postal employee or placed in special containers which will be found in the lobby, rather than dropping the mail singly in the mail drops.

"Incidentally," said Mrs. Nash, "many patrons have the idea that local includes the surrounding Glades towns, but word local means just that—NOTHING BUT BELLE GLADE."

"We had a very smooth and happy Christmas Mailing season last year," concluded Mrs. Nash, "due to the cooperation of the public. We appreciated their very much last year, and we hope that this year may be just like last year — if not better."

50 Farmers Activate 3,500-Ton Sugar Mill Unit

The Atlantic Sugar Association is composed of fifty-odd cane farmers who have formed a Cooperative, for the production of sugar, with a 3,500 daily capacity mill planned to the stage of letting the contract.

Major financing of the mill has been arranged with the Bank for Cooperatives of Columbia, S. C.

Boon deals agreements are signed with growers as individuals and as corporate entities for 400,000 tons of cane, with the necessary acreage designated by each, with pledges of specified owner financing on a per-ton basis, for mill construction.

Using the commonly accepted figure, the 400,000-ton cane crop will bring into the community an annual payroll of more than $1,400,000.

Approximately 80 to 85 percent of the acreage designated for cane planting is raw land, not heretofore used, and the balance is mainly for cattle, with a vegetable growing history for some.

Daniel Construction Co., of Florida, with offices in Jacksonville has been selected to build the mill. The mill is expected to be completed by November 1964 when grinding is expected to commence.

London, Ky. & Belle Glade Rotary 30th Anniversary

Tommy Forsee, as Chairman of the Rotary's International Committee, reported to his club Friday that, following the assignment of International Rotary Belle Glade Club had written fraternization with the Rotary Club of Bielefeld Germany.

An exchange of general information on each club is sent, and invitations for personal visits issued by each, with a current swap of items of interest to each about the other.

Dr. Forsee visited the London, Ky., club this fall and expressed amities and fellowship with the same aim.

"This practice is becoming vogue with all of the 11,000 Rotary Clubs in 128 countries of the world," Chairman Forsee reported.

Co. Com. Rardin Against Permits For Gun Toting

For weeks, since it was advised of an old gun carrying law, the county commission has been having routine approval to application for permits to carry firearms.

Monday the board did an about face and decided to quit giving routine stamp approval to the applications.

An old law, dug up by County Solicitor Joel Doves, requires a permit for residents to carry pistols and repeating rifles. Permits were not issued by the county commission.

This week County Commissioner Paul Rardin was advised he could vote negatively on the applications and he said he would not sign any more permits.

Commissioner Edward Bandlow, long-time opponent of the act, said he took a dim view of the permits and thought the act should be repealed.

Said Commissioner George Warren, "even a sign, I wonder who will get shot by this gun."

Only Commission Chairman E. P. Van Kessel had anything good to say about the situation — and his views were that the commission should be aware that "there are two sides to this thing." He said residents who go to the trouble of making applications for the permits should be given consideration. "Many permits are issued for saving a life — not taking one," the chairman said.

The board decided to check further with the county solicitor's office to determine if offenders with the county solicitor's office to determine if offenders of the old law are still being prosecuted and the amount of emphasis being placed on the gun permit case.

The commission pointed out that all permits and licenses, except the gun permits are handled by the county judges office and they questioned the need of the commission having to act in this one particular instance.

Florida Taxpayers Averaged $253 In '62 For 10th High In US

Florida state and local governments together collected $1,375,600,000 in taxes and fees during the fiscal year 1962, a 9 per cent gain over the previous year compared with a 7 percent increase throughout the nation, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce reported in its Weekly Business Review.

"Collections of taxes, fees and licenses by any agency of the state and by all counties, districts and cities are included in this figure," the Review pointed out. "Only by lumping state and all local collections together can state by state comparisons be made because of differences in tax structures. Measured in this way, Florida's total was tenth largest among the 50 states."

"Although state-local totals were greater in nine states other than Florida, 27 states had higher taxes than Florida on a per capita basis. By dividing collections by population, the average for each Florida resident was $253 last year. This figure was 5 per cent more than in 1961 compared with a national gain of 6 per cent."

"State-local expenditures in Florida last year, including both their own collections and federal funds, amounted to $1,356,000,000, a gain of 3 per cent over the previous year while the nationwide figure increased 6 per cent. A small portion of collections in Florida were invested, making the expenditure total slightly less than the combined receipts total in the state."

"Debt outstanding in mid-1962 came to $2,060,700,000 for state and local governments in Florida combined, up 10 per cent. The nationwide gain was 8 per cent. Cash and security holdings in trust in Florida totaled $1,379,800,000, up 15 per cent while the comparable national figure moved up 9 per cent."

Twenty-three junior colleges and five universities in the Florida state system would benefit directly from passage of the College Building Amendment on the Nov. 5 ballot.

4-H's ARE DOERS Club Aims to Build Leaders...Teach Responsibility

State Supported Police Academy Need

It takes more than a badge and a gun to make a good law enforcement officer. The steady increase in our crime and juvenile delinquency rate makes imperative good law enforcement for it touches the lives of all citizens and demands the utmost consideration.

Speaking to the Florida Intelligence Unit recently, Secretary of State Tom Adams pointed to the urgent need in this state, for a law enforcement academy for the proper training of all state, county, municipal and special agency personnel charged with any form of law enforcement.

While Florida has done very well by its firemen in providing them with a good State Fire College, with a resultant saving of millions of dollars and countless lives by reduced fire insurance rates and modern life saving methods, we have done little to advance the efficiency of our law enforcement units.

Secretary Adams envisions a first rate academy, staffed by able and experienced men to properly train and prepare recruits for our law enforcement ranks. Such an academy to serve as a training ground for men and women engaged in all forms of state, county, municipal and agency police work.

It would deal with crime detection, prevention, related security matters, and train officers for city police, sheriffs, state troopers, beverage agents, game and fish wardens, security guards and others.

While excellent work has been done by the Florida Sheriffs Bureau, the Florida Highway Patrol Training School, the Florida State corrections program and the Miami police academy, we sorely need a state supported academy.

Just as our efficient State Fire College prepares and trains men in up-to-date fire prevention and control methods, so would a police officers' academy provides us with well trained men and women for all type of police and crime prevention and detection work.

Florida's rapid growth and increased crime rate make it imperative that we give thoughtful consideration to Secretary Adams' suggestions. Such a program should have been instituted years ago. What is more important than the safety and security of the citizens of this state?

All good law enforcement officers, no matter what branch of the government they serve, whether in a small community or in a metropolitan area, patrol our highways or engage in highly technical investigations have common problems, and basic training is highly important. All need to know something about law and legal procedure, about first aid and emergency care for the injured, self defense, the use of firearms, identification and records and particularly the latest methods and techniques of the profession as developed over the years by our select law enforcement agencies throughout the nation and the world.

Only a central state maintained academy can do the job that must be done if Florida is to keep step and properly provide for the safety and security of its citizens.

All Floridians and their elected officials from the governor down would do well to give this matter the serious thought it deserves. The hour is late and the time is now. Let's stop talking about the problem and act.

Churches of Christ Scientist

Jesus' instructions on how to pray will be brought out in this Sunday's Bible Lesson at all Christian Science church services. The subject is "God the Preserver of Man."

Golden Text: "The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth... The Lord preserveth all them that love him" (Psalms 145:18, 20.)

Related readings from the Christian Science textbook will open with these lines: "Our Master said, 'After this manner therefore pray ye, and then he gave that prayer, which covers all human needs' (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 161).

USDA Buys Billion Lbs. Meat and Lard

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has bought more than a billion pounds of meat products during the last four years for distribution to schools, charitable institutions, and needy families.

The meat items purchased by USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service since the first of 1960 include frozen ground beef, canned beef and gravy, canned beef in natural juices, canned pork and gravy, canned pork in natural juices, canned chopped meat, frozen ground lamb, frozen carcass lamb, and lard.

Currently, purchase programs are in process for buying lard, canned pork, and canned chopped meat. The Agricultural Marketing Service ended its frozen ground beef purchase program October 24. The ground beef and canned pork are for distribution to schools participating in the national school lunch program, while the canned chopped meat — consisting of pork and optional beef and mutton — is for distribution to needy families. The lard is being bought for distribution to schools.

THE PAYOFF

The codfish lays ten thousand eggs,
The homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles,
To tell you what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish,
While the humble hen we prize,
Which only goes to show you
It pays to advertise.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

Each of the seven denominations of series E Savings Bonds shows a different President of the United States. If you're interested in this kind of art, the seven make a nice collection. Along with the hobby, Savings Bonds offer such extras as riskless investing, 3 1/2% more money at maturity, and financial freedom for your future. But there are other kinds of freedom tied in with your purchase of Savings Bonds. Freedom to speak your piece, choice your job, and own your property, to name a few. Every Bond you buy helps our government further the cause of freedom everywhere in the world today. Why not start collecting U.S. Savings Bonds now? Only $18.75 each for the George Washington variety, at your bank or on Payroll Savings where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with U.S. Savings Bonds

Beware Of Wrong Kind Of Toys

Thoughtless parents can turn a child's Christmas pleasure into a family tragedy. Doctor George A. McCoy, Director of the State Board of Health's Accident Prevention Program, said many children are hurt each year, and some die, because they have been given the wrong kind of toys. Lead poisoning is always a hazard, especially when a lot is given figures cast of lead — dolls, soldiers, animals — or which may be painted with a lead-based paint. Most manufacturers use a safe paint on toys and safe paint should carry a legend reading "Conforms to American Standard."

Doctor McCoy said surveys have shown that children in the age five group are more often involved in accidents with toys than any other group and that almost twice as many boys are hurt as girls. He said any kind of weapon in too young hands can hurt the holder or an innocent person. Some plastics are so flammable that they will burst into flame at the slightest touch of a cigarette or match. Some toys, he said, will burst into flame even when some distance from fire. He said toys with ragged or sharp edges should be avoided as should articles which can be put in the mouth, possibly leading to choking to death. Children even put tiny objects up their noses and into their ears, and swallow even from stuffed animals and dolls. Electric toys should have the UL (Underwriters Laboratory) label on the toy and cord; products which contain food or food mix should bear the approval of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. Fragile Christmas tree ornaments are dangerous, and trees themselves should be set in water if possible or be carefully secured against falling; and in no case should candles, cotton or paper for decorations be used on or around the tree.

Slow Poke Drivers Cause Accidents

The slow-poke driver is more of a hazard than the driver who simply exceeds the speed limit according to William B. Wellons, Jr., director of Traffic and Safety for the East Florida AAA Division.

This was a highlight finding announced at the AAA's annual meeting in Toronto, Wellons reported. "It was made by Dr. James Malfetti, executive officer of the Safety Research and Education Project of Columbia University."

"Florida is taking steps in the right direction by maintaining 40 and 45 mile per hour minimum speed limits on major expressways."

"Safety is best served when all the vehicles in a traffic stream are moving at about the same speed, with a minimum of overtaking and passing," Wellons noted.

"One dawdling driver of slow equipment can seriously disrupt this even flow. Thus Dr. Malfetti feels that more attention should be paid by enforcement authorities to the effect of a driver's behavior on traffic flow than to minor speed infractions."

$40,000 Mooring Facilities To Be Erected At Lake Lock Sites

Erection of mooring spars (dolphins) and repair of fenders at the approaches to three navigation locks on the Okeechobee Waterway were announced today by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Jacksonville. District Engineer Col. H. R. Parfitt said bids will be opened in Jacksonville on Jan. 14 for installation of seven new 250-ft mooring spars; alterations to another one, and installation of 89 feet of fender walkway at Orono Lock; installation of two new 12-pile mooring spars and modifications to a circular fender are scheduled at Moore Haven Lock; and at St. Lucie Lock four mooring spars will be installed, and large timber water on the lock approaches will be repaired.

Estimated cost of the work is $40,000 according to Army Engineers. The successful bidder will be required to complete the work within 150 calendar days.

Folks Like Cards Mailed From Christmas, Fla.

Christmas cards bearing the Christmas post mark will again be flooding the mails as the season approaches, according to the postmistress of Christmas, Fla., Mrs. Joann Tucker.

Mrs. Tucker handled about 350,000 Christmas cards last year and she anticipates an increase this holiday season. People all over the nation and from many foreign countries use the Christmas post mark on their greeting cards.

The Greater Orlando Chamber of Commerce annually collects cards for mailing from the community of Christmas, 23 miles east of Orlando.

Cards sent to the Chamber for mailing from Christmas should be boxed or wrapped in heavy paper and bear the proper postage. This package of addressed, stamped cards should be mailed to P. O. Box 1913, Orlando, Florida.

Christmas, with a population of 250, was established Christmas day, 1835, as a for to protect area residents from hostile Seminole Indians.

Some $10,000 Fish Swimming Around

Fishermen in Florida hauled in 1963 tagged fish worth $35,175 during the Jos. Schlitz Brewing Company's 1963 Florida Fishing Derby.

The first tabulation of the 1963 event, announced recently, brought to more than $200,700 the total awarded to fish catchers in the state since the brewing company launched its first recreation and research "fishing derby" in 1961.

None of the four $10,000 fish planted for the 1963 Derby were caught. The most valuable fish taken were in the $1,000 category, and seven of these were caught. Zone 4 (northern Florida) was tops in $1,000 fish with four and also led the other three zones in total number of fish caught, 615, and total cash awards, $20,700.

The final figures for the other zones were Zone I (southeast) — 494 fish worth $14,175; Zone II (southwest) — 186 fish and $5,550; and Zone III (central) — 600 fish and $17,750.

Of the total 1,895 tagged fish caught during the contest period — which was from February 1 to August 31 overall — 1,895 were fresh water fish and the remainder salt water. Since more fresh water fish were tagged than salt water, this meant that a higher percentage of salt water species were caught than fresh water, as had happened in the two earlier derbies.

During the derby in each zone, tagged fish from the previous 1961 and 1962 derbies were assigned a value of $25 each as an inducement for Schlitz for fishermen to turn in these "old" fish, which provided valuable research data to the state because of the length of time they've been at large. Exactly 220 of these "old" fish were caught and turned in during the 1963 derby, with one of them worth $300, since its tag number had been designated for a special conservation award.

Before and after the fourth month derby in each zone, "old" fish receive a nominal $4 bounty — yet fishermen have gone to the trouble of bringing in 94 of these $4 specimens as far this year.

The fish are tagged and released each year by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission and the Florida State Board of Conservation salt water in cooperation with Schlitz. Anglers receive $25, $100, $1,000 or $10,000 for each tagged fish caught during the derby and officials of the two state agencies receive valuable research data for their studies on fish habits, movements, growth and longevity.

The 1,895 tagged fish caught in the derby just concluded was a new high, compared to 1,877 in 1962 and 1,269 the year before. However, the derby ran for only three months in each zone during the first two years. The 1963 award total of $58,175 compared to $81,425 last year and $60,225 in 1961. However, one $10,000 fish was caught in 1961 and two last year, while all the top award fish escaped capture this year.

The fish are tagged and released each year by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission and the Florida State Board of Conservation salt water in cooperation with

Radish-Pepper Standards Set

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced amendments to the U.S. Standards for radishes and sweet peppers to make the standards practicable for use in consumer packages.

USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service said the amendments provide for decent tolerances in consumer-size packages which are in line with good commercial packing and marketing practices.

Small consumer-size containers often have as few as three or four peppers or six ounces of radishes. The amendments make it practical to apply U.S. grades to such containers and mark the grade on the container as a quality guide for consumers.

One of the judges from Miami stated that in her opinion the Patonettes were one of the finest groups she had seen anywhere for a long time and the spirit of the girls is wonderful. All the girls are under the direction of Miss Pat Anderson.

Christmas Treasures-home & community

Christmas holds a special opportunity for each of us in our own homes and in our communities. More than a mere holiday, it is perhaps the best occasion of the whole year for people to do things which draw them closer to each other in their own families and communities, and closer to the rest of the world. Miss Mary Todd, Home Demonstration Agent, says "Peace on Earth" begins a new each year, each day, light where you and I live — must include us and our neighbors and our relationships in everyday family and community affairs.

The special good will things which your family does together year after year at this season help more than one realizes to foster the real spirit of Christmas. The essence of this spirit is love — love for people of all kinds whom we know and like; those we don't know, or even dislike.

Love is a creative force. Thus Miss Todd says, members of the family may be inspired to develop latent creative abilities in their Christmas preparations, especially in plans for sharing with family, friends and strangers, and in making or choosing decorations and gifts.

This true Christmas spirit of love carries our thoughts and plans beyond our own circle of family and friends. So many people need so much which each of us could share, regardless of our means — friendliness to the lonely in the neighborhood, food and clothing for the less prosperous. Let's head the Christ child's counsel to share with one of the least of these. "I'm so doing we find our richest Christmas treasure."

English Students Present Program At PTA Meeting

The program of the Junior High School PTA meeting was put on by Mrs. Carl Hill, who introduced members of her English class in several readings. Mickey McKee gave a reading on "Drumming Boy" Louise Knapp, gave "The Boy who Laughed at Santa Claus" and Pat Fisher a "Poor Baby Jesus" dialogue. Also on the program were Evelyn Harris who presented a panel comprised of Petie Parrish, Buddy Goodbread, Margie Townsend, Cecilia Mathis. They discussed the pros and cons of Electoral College.

Everybody was reminded to watch the program "Population Explosion and Education on Channel 5 WPTV at 6:45 each Saturday. Next Saturday the topic will be on the "Function of the Palm Beach County Council." The association voted to sponsor a beginner dancing class for the 7th and 8th grades beginning in January, not to conflict with teen town. Mrs. Rhodes 121 grade won the attendance banner for the

The Nov. 11 meeting of the group, the Juvenile Protection Committee reported on its trip to the Okeechobee Boys School in Oct. 9. Guest speaker was Mrs. Barbara Pope, who outlined the work of the Juvenile Court — its origin, jurisdiction and function. She also told of her work as domestic relations counselor in addition to her job as counselor for Juvenile Girls. She also told of work of Mr. Chas. Billings, boys counselor, who was unable to be a part of the program due to sickness.

Hunters Take Home Excellent Kills In South Florida
Duck hunters in the southern portion of the State are reporting an abundance of waterfowl, accompanied with some most desirable cool temperature according to L. F. Gailey, Manager of the Game & Fresh Water Fish Commissions Everglades Region.

"Duck hunting success reports reaching this regional headquarters, would indicate hunters are taking proper advantage of the waterfowl supply this year. The only problem reported thus far, is the ducks seem to be hanging in close to the grassy shallows of various water areas, making them a harder target, for hunters using outboard boats," Gailey said.

Wildlife harvests on the Com. missions various Florida Wildlife Management Areas continue to report an excellent return for the first three weeks of the 1963-64 hunting season. A three week summary of the Wildlife Management areas is as follows:

Pahokee

Tommy Close who "wobbed" his way to all-conference honors with the Golden Rams of Belle Glade, and Mike Watkins "most valuable linebacker" of the Pahokee Blue Devils are joined by Ronnie Coker, the first to letter in four sports at Okeechobee including "all-conference" recognition in football, in letting folks know on December 14th just where Lake Okeechobee "down in Florida" really is.

They are playing members of the Golden Norsemen of Northeastern Oklahoma A & M College at Miami, Oklahoma, who will oppose the Orange Coast of Costa Mesa, Calif., for the championship of Junior College in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

The game will be televised by NBC in color, according to the Jaycees who have sponsored the annual title contest for 18 years. The Norsemen have visited the coveted Bowl twice before, and hope to maintain the rating given them as No. 1 team by defeating the No. 2 team of Costa Mesa, Calif.

Close has a record, as a freshman and No. 3 quarterback of eight pass completions of 19 attempted for a gain of 100 yards and a season of 615.

The other two freshmen, Watkins as an offensive guard and Coker as an offensive end, have delivered when called on. The Glades should watch the television closely on Dec. 14th; maybe we will reap some consolation of viewing a oft-offending publicity to that of the warped minds of another "System."

IS Civil Service Retirement Pay Affects Veterans

The payment of Veterans Administration pensions to veterans or their dependents may be affected by the recently enacted increase in Federal Civil Service Retirement Annuities. Melvin T. Dixon, Director of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, announces today:

These increases may raise the total income of the veteran or dependent concerned, beyond the amount on which the VA originally based the entitlement to present monthly payments.

Dixon said that all pensioners must promptly notify the VA of changes in their income in order that timely adjustments in monthly payments may be made, and possible overpayments avoided.

Persons receiving pensions under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1960 may waive part of their annuity to meet the pension income requirements. Persons under the current law (Public Law 86-211) may not waive any annuity.

Wintering Auto
Now Very Timely

Say Highway Boys

The Florida Highway Patrol today reminded motorists that "winterizing your car now is an investment that will pay off in big dividends" during the coming cold weather months.

The Patrol said that now is the time to take preventive measures to insure safer driving between now and next Spring. And warned unless such precautions are taken many motorists will find themselves stranded far from a service station, stalled in heavy traffic or involved in a wreck during the winter months.

Here is a list of suggestions to be followed in preparing for the winter driving:

Get anti-freeze in your Northern areas, if you haven't already done so. Florida weather is unpredictable.

Get a motor tuneup to insure against a sudden change in temperature causing motor stalls.

Check your battery and brakes, two of the most important items on your automobile.

Check the muffler and exhaust system in general. Insure yourself and family against carbon monoxide poisoning. Check the windshield wipers, the lighting system, the tires and install and use seatbelts.

"The motorist who neglects his preventive maintenance duties eventually finds himself in trouble one way or another, in trouble like being stranded far from a service station or a garage, stalled in traffic or involved in an accident," the Patrol warned.

Mail Early To Assure Delivery Of Your Christmas Gifts And Cards

Postmaster Rosa A. Nash had her annual Christmas "present" ready today for her patrons, and to nobody's surprise, it was her perennial suggestion: "MAIL EARLY!"

"Christmas shopping and mailing is, for most people, one of the heaviest chores at Christmas," Mrs. Nash said. "And if I can persuade some people to get it done right now I think they will agree later — when they are taking it easy while others rush round — that I have given them a very good present."

The average college graduate earns about $100,000 more in his lifetime than the average high school graduate.

"Virtually all Christmas mailing can be disposed of now by observing the following five suggestions," Postmaster Nash explained.

1. Do your shopping for your Christmas gifts NOW.

2. Check and revise mailing lists for cards and presents.

3. Package and mail Christmas parcels promptly. Don't worry about being too early — just mark them "DO not open until Christmas."

4. Buy Christmas cards now and address them right away, separating them into out-of-town and local bundles. Mail them immediately with ZIP Codes on them and you've got it made, except perhaps for that last-minute card you forgot to send to Aunt Minnie.

5. Buy plenty of stamps now while post office windows are uncrowded.

For Christmas cards, the Postmaster recommends the attractive 5-cent Christmas stamp showing the National Christmas tree in Washington, D. C. Use of this stamp insures first-class mail treatment — meaning the card may contain personal messages and may be forwarded or returned free of extra charge. For example, if Great Aunt Minnie has moved without telling you, your card will be forwarded to her (presuming she has left a forwarding address). If the card cannot be forwarded, it will be returned to you, provided you have put your return address on the envelope as the postmaster has asked.

Incidentally, to speed Christmas card handling, letter carriers and post offices will have free supplies available of "local" and "out-of-town" bands for Christmas cards. If you will use these to separate your local and out-of-town cards, it will expedite delivery and assist your post office.

In most areas, postal patrons will find that a supply of these will be left in their mail box, or they may be had from carrier's or local post offices for the asking.

And — just as an additional peace-of-mind safeguard about parcels this Christmas — the Postmaster urges you to insure them.

She noted that — despite the Department's efforts over many years to promote good packaging and addressing — the Postal Service each year has been unable to deliver or return about half a million parcels, including many lost because of poor packaging or incorrect addressing.

Another situation that discourages postal employees is that in which they finally manage to decipher an address on a parcel only to find the deciphered address is completely erroneous — to the wrong street or sometimes even to the wrong city and state.

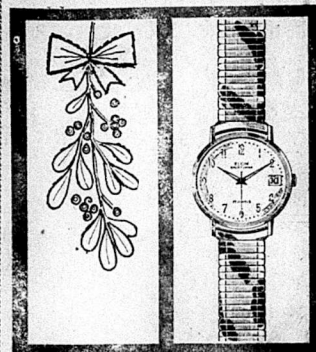

The Postmaster emphasized that ZIP Code can also help insure against loss due to poor addressing for letters and parcels. The five-digit ZIP Code identifies one specific area. No other area has that same ZIP Code number. Therefore, Mrs. Nash explained — in view of the great number of opportunities for error that arise from the fact that there are many streets and cities with similar names — the ZIP Code is a real asset for Christmas mail, as well as for regular mailings.

"For example, if a letter is addressed to 'Mineola' and the state is left out or is illegible, we can tell from the ZIP Code, if used, whether it goes to Mineola, Iowa, New York, Texas or Missouri, each of which have a city by that name," Mrs. Nash said.

"Mailing early with ZIP Code is such a help to the mailer, as well as our Post Office, that I really can't see why everyone doesn't do it," she added.

New Officers Of Hospital Auxiliary Installed At Luncheon Meeting Tues.

Mrs. J. Allen Baker, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of Belle Glade Memorial Hospital entertained at a luncheon at her home Tuesday, Dec. 10 or members of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Baker was assisted by Mrs. Judy D. Wood, Jr.

Members enjoying the luncheon were Mrs. Roy W. Brown, Mrs. I. L. Price, Mrs. Irvin Zump, Mrs. James Finan, Mrs. J. E. Frasure, Mrs. Jess Livingston, Mrs. J. D. McClellan, Mrs. T. Daniels, Mrs. Dora McWhorter, Mrs. O. G. McWhorter, Mrs. Frank Dooler, Mrs. Harold Rabin, Mrs. Mildred Haney, Mrs. John Causey, Mrs. Lee Berryhill, Mrs. Robert Mathews, Mrs. John Grady, Mrs. Guy Wood and Mrs. Baker.

Officers Installed
The officers for the coming year were installed in an impressive ceremony by Mrs. Irvin Zump, and were presented with lovely orchid corsages by Mrs. Zump.

New officers seated were Mrs. J. A. Allen Baker, President; Mrs. Roy W. Brown, Vice-President; Mrs. Victor Mulberg, secretary; Mrs. I. L. Price, treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Frasure, Recording secretary; Mrs. Ted Daniel stood in for Mrs. Mulberg who was unable to be present.

A business meeting followed with Mrs. Baker, president presiding. At the last meeting the group voted to give $1,000 to the hospital board to use in furnishings and decorations for the nurse's home. A committee comprised of Mrs. Price, Mrs. Daniels, and Mrs. Thomas Bregger was appointed to assist in decoration of the home.

Mrs. Roy Brown, membership drive chairman, announced the annual drive will start on Jan. 6. A coffee will be held at Mrs. Brown's home on Jan. 6 at 10 a. m. All members, workers and anyone interested in aiding this organization in their drive are urged to attend.

The Auxiliary members at the last meeting voted to revise the by-laws of the organization so that they may elect a 2nd

Equipment Dealer Attends Meeting

In Memphis 12-13

C. L. Stuart, owner of Stuart's Farm Service, local Olive farm equipment dealer, will attend Oliver Corporation's "More from the Growing O" meeting at the Ellis Auditorium in Memphis, Tennessee, Thursday and Friday, December 12-13.

Oliver's new products for 1964 will be presented to dealers from throughout several states by Samuel W. White, Jr., president of Oliver, and his top management team from the Chicago headquarters of the farm and industrial equipment subsidiary of The White Motor Company. The two-day event will highlight methods by which the outstanding features of the new products can be presented most effectively to farmers and contractors.

Long Beach in company with other units of the fleet have just completed a seven-day visit to Gifre Juan on the French Riviera near Cannes.
This ship has one of the most advanced communication, electronic, and ordnance systems in the Navy today. It carries Talos, (a long-range guided missile), Terrier (a medium range missile), anti-submarine rockets and five-inch guns for low flying aircraft and surface targets.

Long Beach is powered by nuclear reactors which provide an almost unlimited cruising range without refueling.

Old Milk Cow Radioactive Resistant

The old milk cow along with other livestock and poultry would serve as primary safe guards of our health during a nuclear attack, a Florida Agricultural Extension Service Specialist reports.

Dr. Barney Harris, Jr., assistant dairyman at the University of Florida, says the body systems of our food animals would act as a primary barrier against the accumulation of radioactive material by humans. He explains that the digestive, excretory and mammary systems of these animals would

Goal Teachings For 4-5-6 Grades Told At PTA Meet

The Elementary School PTA held its December meeting in the school auditorium with Mrs. Larry Royal giving the devotion. The program was on "Goal Teachings for 4th-5th and 6th Grades."

Mr. Clark of the 6th grade and Mrs. Reeves of the 5th grade presented goal for reading: Mrs. Davidson gave reading goals for the 4th grade. Mrs. Grigby presented goals for the 4th grade in Math. Mr. Willits 5th and 6th grade Math. A question and answer period followed.

Mrs. Helen Spooner's room won the attendance banner for the first time.

Delicious refreshments of fruit cake, nuts and coffee were served by the hostesses: Mrs. Roy Brown and Mrs. Carl Cone. The table was also decorated in a Christmas theme.

Musical Carnival Tickets As Christmas Gifts!

Giving a Broadway musical for Christmas is an unusual present available now at six handy shopping locations in the form of colorful Musical Carnival Gift Tickets.

With Gift Tickets the person receiving them simply exchange them for his own choice of shows and evenings as the giver's guest during Musical Carnival's

1964 season, which opens February 18 with "The Sound of Music."

For special convenience of shoppers, Gift Tickets are available in downtown West Palm Beach at Music Manor, in Palm Beach at Salon of Music, in Lake Worth at Chafins Music Center, in Delray Beach at Paul Mull Resortwear, and in Riviera Beach at Tradewinds Travel Service and Three Arts Book Shop.

To give the whole season of six musicals instead of just one or two shows, handsome Musical Gift Subscription Certificates may be ordered directly by mail.

Who is Delinquent — Parent or Child?

Charles Billings
PB County Juvenile Counselor
(Editor's Note: Mr. Billings talks to the Rotary Club last Friday is of interest to every parent, and to friends of children, that we reproduce it here. We commend a careful reading and consideration.)

Right here, let me say that you people here in the Glades are fortunate indeed. By comparison to your sister cities in the county, the delinquency problem does not have the serious proportions — crimes such as armed robbery, murder, rape, thefts, sex cases, unprovoked fights, only two many breaking and entering, Grand Larceny and the like. Oh, we have smotherings of love, and I'm not so naive as to think that much legal delinquency is going on that never comes to the attention of law enforcement or other agencies. It might be well to also explain that as Court Counselor, I actually do not have to enter a case unless it has been properly referred to the court. This is by and through the schools, any public agency police or other law-enforcement agencies, and the private citizen. I do not necessarily have to report to the scene when a child is in custody or under arrest. The law states that the court and parent must be notified as soon as practicable. I personally am the type that likes to be there when a kid is in trouble. His attitude when caught arrested, confined, the attitude of the parents, remarks of the arresting officer, all of these factors enter into any case that may result in a court hearing later.

Let's follow a case from the time the Officer tells the boy to get in the car. At that point that child is in custody. On the subject of custody, where we get into the picture. The police officer has the same discretion with a child as an adult — it is his decision to arrest or not. When I am notified and appear at the scene, I face that awesome task of making the decision to keep the child in custody or releasing to his parents until take on their responsibility — they want someone else to raise their kids. This is not in any sense of the word our function. I get many calls, to this effect "Come on out here and see this boy — he won't mind me, I can't do nothing with him. Just take him and put him over there in that home, or wherever you want to put him." I never cease to amaze at the otherwise responsible adult who will actually admit that he or she cannot control their own child. Where is delinquency here?

Now I do not want to, here, today, place myself, in your eyes, on either side of that controversial fence of either blaming the parents, or blaming the young people. I do have my side, but in no two cases can either be held strictly and solely responsible. I'll tell you one thing, though — I've said it already — what two factors influence a child's growing process more than another during these formative years? Home and school.

Today is a day of praising you of this community. You, as taxpayers, are very fortunate indeed to also have the Judge and Chief Counselor of this court that you do, and higher authority to know value when they see it. Palm Beach County's Juvenile Court system has been recognized throughout the state and parts of the nation as being one of the finest. A neighboring county with a larger court and staff than ours recently publicly stated that Palm Beach County was 10 years ahead of them in this field. (At this point a man from Jax, Fla. spoke up and confirmed this.) I am proud to be associated with this court, and proud to be working in the Glades area.

A question was asked as to what problems were evident in the area or county that hampered our function. I answered that what problems there were were not serious, but could be if allowed to go on. Look at this way — if you allow a child, by covering up his acts to continue his activities, doesn't it stand to reason it will get worse and worse if it goes unchecked. I speak of the tendency to allow a child to break the law, beincorrigible or conduct himself badly without bringing it to the proper authority. Like the police officer who might let a kid home at 4 a. m. may be in-corrected, or after having com-mitted a minor traffic violation, and tell him to be a good boy from now on. This may work — especially the first time a-round, but in my opinion, first, that officer may not know that that same kid was referred to the court by the school, another department, maybe another of-ficer on the same force a few days prior, and then, the proper authority is not notified. After all, any act of disregard for adults, privacy, property, law and order, is a danger signal from the child involved. It should not be allowed to go un-checked. Just because it be-comes confidential knowledge to the court does not necessarily mean a case will be made, but it would be extreme value should that child go on to more serious things or repeated acts. A gentleman here made the re-mark that perhaps so much goes unknown or unpunished is because it is basically a small community where officers and citizens know one another so well. This is true. But, look at it this way — you are paving me to ride herd and be of as-sistance to you in the control and conduct of your children by legal means should they become anti-social. Doesn't it follow that no man in this work can effec-tively help them or you if he knows not what is going on?

Now for some statistics. Your court has 8 Probation Coun-selors in the field like myself. We have 3 workers in the new-ly formed Domestic Relations part of the court — another sign of our growth, and three superintendents in charge of your three county supported in-stitutions; namely the detention quarters, and the two children's homes. Of course the institu-tions and the court offices have a staff of secretaries, guards, teachers and matrons.

There were a total of 6,486 cases — active cases — car-ried forward at the close of the fiscal year on July 1, 1962. From then until July 1, 1963 there were 3,508 new cases ad-ded and as of July 1, 1963, 936 cases were closed out, leaving a total of 9,058 active cases be-fore the beginning of the current fiscal year.

We have also added, from within our staff, a court psy-chologist that is available to the counselors for psychological of any individual child. This testing in those cases where the service greatly aids the Judge in reaching proper decisions, and the counselor who may work with child and family later on.

NEW CHEVELLE!

BY CHEVROLET

The kind of go—6 or V8—you'd expect from one of Chevy's great highway performers. Come on down and drive it.

The kind of comfort you'd expect in a large interior. Come on down and sit in it.

The kind of fresh styling—inside and out—that makes it the year's smartest surprise. Come down and stare at it.

New Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,400-pound range. Then built four lusty engines—two slats and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses!

And if that makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea. You've also got a roomy car here. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Pull Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps. And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmanship shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too. Sound good? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price! Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.

Beloved Concert Artist S. Goldberg Will Appear At Palm Beach Playhouse

The eminent violinist, Szymon Goldberg, appears on January 8, at Frank J. Hale's Playhouse in Palm Beach with the Fort Lauderdale Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Dr. Emerson Buckley. One of the reigning masters of this instrument, Goldberg is a beloved figure on the international concert scene. This season is another busy one for the Polish-born artist who has scheduled many appearances as soloist with our leading symphonies as well as his usual notable series of recitals.

Since his memorable American debut ten years ago, Goldberg has become firmly established as one of the top instrumental favorites. It was a debut long delayed by the Second World War, in which the violinist was one of the most celebrated

Interact

The meeting was called to order by the president, John Caussey, on December 5th at Mr. Harold Zump's house.

There was a short report from the project committee which will be meeting tonight, December 12, at John Caussey's house to make further plans for the club's service and fund raising activities.

The boys in the club would like to thank Mr. John Nutt and Mr. Harold Zump for the hospitality they have displayed by inviting the club into their homes and preparing a fine meal for them.

The next meeting of Interact will be held December 19 in the Band room. All members please attend.

How Would You Cope With It?

Teenagers from different parts of the state have written to us telling us how they would cope with a particular problem. Here is this week's problem and a few of the solutions we received.

It is the night of the biggest dance of the season. You're all dressed in your beautiful, new lavender formal. Your date comes in and hands you the box which contains the corsage you are to wear that evening. When you open the box, you are horrified when you discover RED roses. You can't pin those red roses on your new lavender formal. How would you cope with it?

I'd act as though I was so happy, and then I'd pretend that I accidentally dropped them and very quickly stomp on them.

Tampa, Fla.

I would have told my date that I would pin them on in the car, and on the way out, I'd throw them in the hedge.

P. J. Bean City, Fla.

I would pin it on very loosely, and then when I'd lean over the punch bowl, it would come unpinned and fall in the punch.

To Do Or Not To Do . . .

Mrs. Helen Smith

"Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not."—Thomas Henry Huxley

This is my favorite quotation about school. It includes all classes and all assignments. No student can say that some class contained no practical use for him, if he has this statement in mind. Even if he is translating Latin which is centuries old or solving algebra in a brand new way, he can not say "when will I ever use this in my life?"

If he ever does something he dislikes doing and it has to be done at a certain time, he has gained something valuable from his education. For example, a person may be asked to preside over a banquet as master of ceremonies; he may not want to do this, but it has to be done. Perhaps someone has to visit and talk with another person that he'd rather not. Maybe a girl has to write up for the paper an account of a social event. She might not want to write it by the deadline, but she makes herself do it because of the training of her education—doing things when they have to be done, whether she wants to or not.

Such training is a valuable result of an education. It is something that you can't say comes from just one course but comes from all. It is an indirect, yet practical carry over from school to life. Remember, however, that you don't have to look negatively at this — the quote says whether you like it or not. You also get training in doing the things you like to do when they ought to be done.

Nevertheless, there are always those who don't receive this training from their education. They never did things when they ought to be done, so this too may be a carry-over — and it may be. These are the ones who will refuse or back out of such things that the others do, whether they like to or not.

In closing, I would like to express the hope that you receive the quotation at the beginning and see if you don't think and agree about perhaps the most valuable result of an education.

Have You Ever Wondered . . .

Why the light outside your window is so faint when you want to study and so bright when you want to sleep?

Whether BGHS will ever have boy cheerleaders?

Why Beta Club sells so many things?

What happens really is?

Why Joan P. didn't grow any taller?

Why Dick W. sings in the choir?

Why Johnny D. goes hunting every weekend?

Why Mr. Bowers wears crutches?

Where Mr. Kela was born?

Why Winkie W. is so smart?

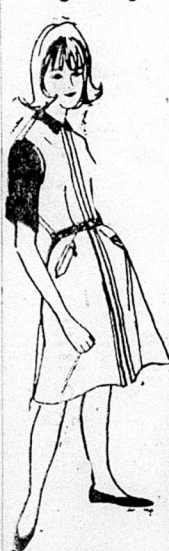

Why Mrs. Hill S. C. blows her upstuck in class?

Why Karen H. wears braces?

Why Pam I. is out of breath every morning in home room?

Do You Believe?

Here is the American's creed. Have you ever heard or read it before?

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

I do love my country else I would not be living here. I enjoy its freedoms; its justice, and its humanity. I enjoy the feeling that I am just as good as the wealthiest person in Palm Beach or the poorest person in the slums of Miami. I am thankful to the men who have given and are giving their lives to save our precious freedoms. I detest to hear anyone degrade this land of ours. We all are so very lucky to live here and I believe that we teenagers DO realize it. Maybe sometimes we don't show it but daily we are preparing ourselves to lead when our time comes.

—Margie Townsend

in a name?

EVERYTHING!

The name 'Jeep' Universal means three things most of all: it's versatile, powerful, virtually indestructible. That's been proven throughout the world over dozens of years and billions of miles. No other vehicle does so many jobs... so well... for so long a time. It's the real McCoy. No wonder the 'Jeep' Universal is the world standard for toughness... No wonder the 'Jeep' name is the best known automotive name in the world. This is the vehicle you can depend on year after year the same as the day you bought it. Available with half or full cabs—convertible top. Also available in 11" or 101" wheelbase. Three power takeoff points. When are you going to start your year with a 'Jeep' Universal? Heart Ball Chairman Announces Plans

Mrs. Homer Marshman

Mrs. Homer Marshman of Palm Beach and Cleveland, Ohio, who is Chairman of the 8th Annual Heart Ball, announced this week that final plans are being made for the 'gala' event to be held Saturday, February 15 at the Breakers Hotel in Palm Beach, according to Carl A. Fischer, President of the Heart Association of Palm Beach and Martin County.

Proceeds from the Ball will represent a large portion of the funds received by the Heart Association during the yearly drive in February, and will greatly aid Grants for Heart Research on a local state and national level, as well as Processional and Public Education, Community Service Programs and Heart Clinics in Palm Beach and Martin Counties.

Mrs. Marshman, who is presently serving as Vice-President on the Board of Directors of the Local Heart Chapter, is no newcomer to the Heart Cause, having worked for many years with the Cleveland Chapter. She has also served on the Board of Directors of the Vocational Guidance Center in Cleveland and is presently serving on the Board of the Crippled Children Society of that city. She is a board member of St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach.

Mrs. Marshman's vast energy is matched only by her dedication to worthy charities, besides being Chairman of the Heart Ball, she will be on the Advisory Committee of the Red Cross Ball, the Good Samaritan Hospital Ball, and is currently serving on the Women's Committee of the Community Chest Drive in Palm Beach. It is understandable that she was elected this year to "Who's Who of American Women."

Mrs. Marshman and her husband, who is a prominent Cleveland attorney, are both golfers and play frequently at the Everglades and Seminole Country Clubs, where they are members. She returned early this year to Palm Beach with their 13-year-old son, who goes to Palm Beach Private School, to select the chairman for the various committees which will be announced later.

Ina Mae Marshman, as she is known to friends around the world, has truly interjected her 'heart' into the planning of this year's Heart Ball, which promises to be a spectacular evening filled with surprises, fun and congeniality amid a glamorous setting, interspersed with internationally known personalities coming by limousine, ship jet... just for the occasion.

IN SERVICE

William L. Frame, chief aviation machinist's mate, USN, husband of the former Miss Emma J. Boatwright of South Bay, Fla., is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Essex.

Essex is currently on a three-month tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet. While in the Mediterranean the ship will participate in various anti-submarine warfare exercises.

The crew of Essex will visit such ports as Saudi Arabia, Aden, Pakistan and Italy. Essex operates out of Quantico, R. I.

A-B William J. Lefils is on a 12 day leave from Lowery AFB, Colorado. He is visiting Mrs. Marge Lefils in Belle Glade, his brother Fred Lefils and sister Mrs. Joan Sorrells in West Palm Beach and another brother Richard in Eau Claire.

Airman Lefils graduated from Belle Glade High School and entered the Air Force in June 1963, where he completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas. He has completed 17 weeks of electronics school at Lowery AFB, and will report back there on Dec. 16 for 16 more weeks of electronic work on F-105 Airplane.

Your Library

Back blurb writers sometimes get carried away in their selection of adjectives and adverbs. Not so the writer of this one, used in introducing each of the LIFE LONG AGO SERIES, intended for the Jr. High crowd.

"The LIFE LONG AGO books are close-up views of ancient civilizations. Everyday life is brilliantly re-created in panoramic, authentic drawings and concise text. Each book is a rare visual experience. Each takes the reader into the reality and excitement of history and provides an extraordinary understanding of a people and their ways."

The books are exactly what this writer claims they are. The Athens in the Classical Period, Leonard Weisgard. If you are a television fan whose appetite for things Greek, and classical, was whetted by the recent special program on Ancient Greece, then you should find this to your liking. Slave sales, lyre construction, the turn of a potter wheel — all become contemporary. You are there! The Cave Dwellers in the Old Stone Age, Richard M. Powers. Good, strong pictures in vivid color, make this one especially effective. The anticipation of the hunt, the terror early man felt as he was faced with the giant mammoth, the development of simple knowledge are topics. Very good!

The Egyptians, Shante Miller. The Asian High Dam, soon to form a 300 mile long reservoir, which will flood many priceless archeological wonders unless they are rescued, has directed interest toward the Egyptian antiquities. The book takes you to visit them, and others — the court of the King of Memphis and the great pyramids of Giza. A trip to enjoy.

The Remains of the Romans. You follow a coin about Rome, in this different kind of history book. Dropped by a slave boy on an errand, picked up by a street cleaner, spent in a wine shop, used to pay a gambling debt at the gladiatorial games, handed to a freedman in return for a rubdown at a Roman bath, the coin travels and on, and on, over the whole of the Roman Empire, and back to the city from which it started. Clever, and packed with detail.

MANY THANKS

Our precious mother, Mrs. Hestia Mae Abbott, who quietly left us on Thanksgiving day was laid to rest on Sunday by our Beloved Father at Paynes Creek Cemetery at Hound Green, under the beautiful service of Reverend Pepper of the Primitive Baptist Church of the Church and Rev. Ora Smith, Nazarene Church of Belle Glade and the heart felt songs, "I Bowed and Cried Holy," and "Amazing Grace," sung by her grand daughter, Mrs. Annie Rachel Aughten.

We the family extend our sincere gratitude to the staff of Belle Glade Memorial Hospital for the loving hands that administered to the careful care of kindly neighbors; to Edna and Ebbins Johnson who have been like our own family; to Dr. and Mrs. Simmons for loving care over the years; to the Nazarene Church for prayers and kindness; to Rev. Smith and Marietta for the beautiful flowers she did enjoy over the months grown by their hands; for the many beautiful wreaths; to Faye for the lovely hair set; to Williams Funeral Home for the kind words of encouragement, and Dr. Grady and Dr. Garraha for their loving care and many house calls. May God especially Bless each of you.
